LMA APPOINTS DHL FOR EUROPEAN WAREHOUSING AND DISTRIBUTION

Singapore, 5 April 2006 – Mainboard-listed LMA International NV (“LMA”), a global leader in the development and marketing of the LMA™ laryngeal mask airway range of supraglottic airway management devices, announced today that its subsidiary The Laryngeal Mask Company Limited (“LMC”) has appointed DHL Exel Supply Chain as its new European distribution warehouse provider for a minimum period of four years. The appointment of DHL Exel Supply Chain is part of the continuing development of LMC’s global logistics function in order to meet increasing business demands.

Commenting on the appointment of DHL Exel Supply Chain, Mr Paul Molloy, Managing Director of LMC, said, “DHL Exel Supply Chain’s state of the art healthcare facility in The Netherlands and it’s expertise in all areas of warehousing and freight management make the logistics service provider well placed to assist LMC in servicing both its existing customer base and new emerging markets. We needed a partner with the ability to scale-up and provide world class supply chain management. DHL Exel Supply Chain has a demonstrated track record of excellence and we are very pleased with this new arrangement.”

Added Mr Ad Wijnhoven, Business Director Consumer, Retail & Healthcare of DHL Exel Supply Chain in the Netherlands, “DHL Exel Supply Chain also has an excellent track record in the field of healthcare logistics. Thanks to our shared user facility in Nijmegen, new customers like LMA can make optimum use of our existing network, experience and our full range of logistics solutions. We’re very proud to be awarded this contract.”

About LMA

Incorporated in the Netherlands Antilles in 1998, LMA was listed on the Singapore Exchange in March 2005. LMA designs, develops, markets and distributes medical equipment, principally the LMA™ laryngeal mask airway range of supraglottic airway management devices. These devices are used by physicians to allow respiration, provide ventilation to, and support the airway of patients undergoing surgical procedures and life-saving interventions.

Since its first product, the LMA-Classic™, was approved by the FDA for use in the United States in 1991, LMA's growth has been driven by the development of innovative products, geographic expansion, and increased customer awareness of the LMA™ laryngeal mask airway as an alternative airway management device. LMA has established a leading position in this growing market.

LMA has an office in Jersey, Channel Islands, and subsidiaries in Singapore, Germany and San Diego, California. DBS Bank Limited and Credit Suisse were the Joint Global Coordinators and Joint Bookrunners for the Initial Public Offering of shares in LMA.
